三、阅读理解：本大题共 10 小题，每小题 3 分，共 30 分。阅读下列短文，从 A、B、C、D 四个备选项中，选出最佳选项。

A

I just returned from the greatest summer vacation! It was so fantastic, and I never wanted it to end. I spent eight days in Paris, France. My best friends, Henry and Steve, went with me. We had a beautiful hotel room in the Latin Quarter, and it wasn't even expensive. We had a balcony with a wonderful view.

We visited many famous tourist places. My favorite was the Louvre, a well-known museum. I was always interested in art, so that was a special treat for me. The museum is so huge you could spend weeks there. Henry got tired walking around the museum and said "Enough! I need to take a break and rest."

We took lots of breaks and sat in cafes along the river Seine. The French food we ate was delicious. The wines were tasty, too. Steve's favorite part of the vacation was the hotel breakfast. He said he would be happy if he could eat croissants like those forever. We had so much fun that we're already talking about our next vacation!

21. What did the writer think of their summer vacation?
A. Touching. B. Excellent. C. Relaxing. D. Funny.
22. How many of them went for the vacation?
A. One. B. Two. C. Three. D. Four.
23. The underlined word "that" in paragraph 2 refers to _____.
A. the view from the balcony B. the hotel price
C. the visit to the Louvre D. the French food
24. What did Steve like most about the vacation?
A. The hotel breakfast. B. The famous museum.
C. The tasty wine. D. The beautiful room.
25. Where is the text most probably from?
A. A diary. B. A newspaper. C. A notice. D. A guidebook.

Having a good attitude and good manners are important both at an interview and on the job. Managers agree that a person's attitude can be more important than their work experience. Your attitude makes a big difference.

If you are excited about being at the interview and are eager to be hired for the job, the employer will probably consider you for the job. If you speak softly and look at your feet during the interview, the employer may not consider you for the job.

Good manners at an interview and at your work are very important. The way you ac it tells a great deal to an employer. If you're polite and kind, it says that you get along with people and you have a respect for seniority, company managers and supervisors.

One of the first manners an employer will look for in the interview is punctuality. This shows whether you're reliable and will be to work on time. Being late for an interview could reduce your chances of being hired.

When you meet the manager, smile. Then, offer a friendly greeting of "Hello" or "Hi". Give the manager a firm handshake. Address the manager as Mr. or Ms. unless he or she asks you to call him or her by the first name. This shows that you have respect for the manager's position. Also, look at the manager directly in the eyes, not down at your feet.

During the interview, sit up straight in the chair. It shows that you're alert and interested. Keep your hands and feet still during the interview. And, never chew gum.

26. What is the text mainly about?

- A. Ways to get along well with others.
- B. How to greet the manager of your company.
- C. The interviewee's excitement and eagerness to be hired.
- D. The importance of attitude and manners at an interview and at work.

27. What should you do according to paragraph 3?

- A. Be polite and kind at an interview.
- B. Give the manager a firm handshake.
- C. Tell the manager that you are respectful.
- D. Share your experience with the employer.

28. What does the underlined word "punctuality" in paragraph 4 probably mean?

- A. Being reliable.
- B. Being excited.
- C. Being at work.
- D. Being on time.

29. Which of the following can show your respect for the manager?

- A. Looking down at you feet.
- B. Addressing him or her as Mr. or Ms.
- C. Speaking as softly as you can.
- D. Calling him or her by the first name.

30. Why should you sit up straight at an interview?

- A. To prove that you are polite.
- B. To keep your hands and feet still.
- C. To show you are alert and interested.
- D. To look at the manager directly in the eyes.
